THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Proceedings of the Meeting Held Last Night.

The board met, the mayor in the chair, all present except Ellington and Merritt.

The special committee on a park for the city made a verbal report stating that the ground offered by Mr. Jordan was beautifully situated and was the proper place for a park and that Mr. Jordan wanted an expression from the board as to whether the city wanted a park. The matter was referred to the committee to investigate further and report at next meeting.

Alderman Shaw was sworn in.

Report of the chief of the fire department for last year was filed.

The board authorized the mayor to advertise for bids for lighting the city for a term of three or five years.

The board authorized the establishment of grade on South Elm street beyond the water tower.

The mayor appointed the following standing committees:

Finance—Ellington, chairman; Merrimon, Shaw, Merritt.

Schools—Merritt, chairman; Ellington, Bain, Sergeant.

Street—Pickard, chairman; McKinney, Lewis, Mendenhall.

Waterworks— Bogart, chairman; Ellington, Shaw, Bain.

Street Light—Merrimon, chairman; Sergeant, Bain, Elam.

Police—McKinney chairman; Merritt, Shaw, Lewis.

Purchasing—Elam, chairman; Lewis, Pickard, Merrimon.

Printing—Shaw, chairman; Merritt, Bogart, Pickard.

Market—Bain, chairman, Merrimon, Pickard, Mendenhall.

Alderman Pickard moved that a committee be appointed to confer with county commissioner with regard to surveyor carried.

The mayor appointed the street committee.

The board made satisfactory arrangement with the trustees of the Presbyterian church for the ground required for Summit avenue.

The mayor appointed Sergeant, chairman, and McKinney and Ellington as Summit avenue committee.

Alderman Merrimon called attention to the condition of the water works reservoir and stated that the same was in a very filthy condition. The mayor instructed the water committee to investigate and report.

Grades were established upon Sycamore, Edgworth, East Market and Spring streets and Summit avenue.

The board ordered grade established on Smith street.

The matter of electing a city attorney was referred to the finance committee to investigate and report at next meeting.

Adjourned.

Will be Looked After.

The reservoir from which the city water supply is pumped is reported to be in a very filthy condition, with old cans, sticks and mud in abundance in the bottom. The water committee was instructed by the board of aldermen last night to look after this matter at once and see that it is properly cleaned out.

To neglect this very important matter would be nothing short of criminal. The health and lives of a large number of ourpeople are at stake. Mr. Bogart, chairman of the committee, says it will be immediately looked into.

Seriously Injured.

George McAdoo, colored, had been plowing and at noon today unhitched and attempted to mount his horse to start to dinner. His foot became entangled in the gear and the horse becoming frightened ran away, starting at Mr. White's on Asheboro street and turning down Whittington, dragging McAdoo by the foot. He sustained severe injuries, receiving a deep cut in the side and his head was badly bruised. He is unconscious at this writing and recovery is doubtful.

Spain's Cabinet Split.

Madrid, May 27—The outcome of yesterday's financial debate is that both Senor Puigcerver, the Minister of Finance, and the Marquis de Villaverde, the Conservative leader, have agreed to oppose the impost on the financial debt, Senor Gamazo, the Liberal leader, and Minister of Public Instruction, has given notice that he will resign from the Ministry if the impost is not adopted.

A ROLAND FOR ITS OLIVER.

Spain Captures the Journal's Yacht, Buccaneer.

ANOTHER DOSE FOR CIENFUEGOS

Despatches For and From Schley and Sampson—Cadiz Fleet Sails.

Spain Wants Peace.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, May 28—A special to the Times says the Journal's yacht, Buccaneer, while cruising off Porto Rico was captured by a Spanish warship. The captain of the yacht claimed that his vessel was sailing under German registry but the Spaniard refused to release him. All persons found aboard the yacht were sent to Germany under guard. Spain will ask Germany to investigate the matter.

JOURNAL DENIES IT.

New York, May 28, (2 p. m.)—The report in a special to the Times that a Spanish warship had captured its yacht Buccaneer is denied by the Journal.

SPANIARDS ROUTED.

Key West, May 28—The Brooklyn, Schley's flagship, has landed 60,000 rounds of ammunition together with rifles and food for the insurgents after a hot fight below Cienfuegos. The engagement occurred on last Tuesday. The fort on the southside of Cienfuegos bay was knocked to pieces by the Marblehead and the Spanish cavalry were attacked simultaneously and routed by 700 Cubans. Many Spaniards were killed. There were no Cuban or American losses.

NO NEWS OF FLEETS.

St. Thomas, May 28—All is quiet here this morning. No news has been received from the Spanish or American fleets.

FLEET SAILS AT LAST.

Madrid, May 28—It is officially announced that the Cadiz fleet has sailed.

A HINT TO THE POWERS.

London, May 28—The reports that Spain desires peace are construed here to be a fresh hint to the continental powers to interfere. Despite the inspired warnings to the contrary Spain expected their intervention early in the war. As Spanish burdens grow heavier and the outlook for Spain, at home and abroad grows darker, the disappointment of Spaniards at the strict neutrality of the powers increases.

EAGLE IN PORT.

Port-au-Prince, May 28—The officers of the auxilliary gun boat Eagle which has just arrived here, refuse to discuss Schley and Cervera.

DESPATCHES FOR SCHLEY.

Kingston, May 28—An important expedition, carrying despatches for Sampson and Schley, left Annotta bay, northern coast of Jamaica, in an open boat. The party was made up of four Cubans, headed by Preval, formerly a clerk in the consulate at Santiago. From Annotta to Santiago is about 140 miles.

Brooklyn Handicap.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Gravesend, May 28—Threatening weather dampens the ardor of the horseman's interest in the Brooklyn handicap which was run this afternoon. A slow track interferes with the attendance of society. Ornament, ridden by Jockey Sloan, is a favorite at odds of 2 to 1. Sly Fox is second choice.

GLADSTONE'S FUNERAL.

The Ceremonies and Procession Were Impressive.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, May 28—Simplicity characterized the obsequies of Gladstone today. The ceremonies were impressive because they were devoid of pomp. There was no insignia of woe. The procession was composed of England's foremost men clad in ordinary mourning costumes. There was not a flower nor a bit of drapery. The plain oak coffin was deposited in the centre of Westminister Hall. The speaker of the house in robes and wig was preceded by the macebearer and followed by members of parliament. Other dignitaries came in the order of their ranks.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

Senate Still Considering the War Revenue Bill.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, May 28—The senate today resumed the consideration of the war revenue bill. There was considerable delay in securing a quorum. When Allison said he hoped the vote would now be secured on the corporation tax proposition providing for a special excise tax amendment Faulkner, of West Virginia, suggested that Gorman accept the amendment making the tax one quarter of one per cent.

Watched By Torpedo Boats.

Norfolk, Va., May 26—The British steamship Consols, Captain Roberts, arrived here from Swansea today. Captain Roberts reports that when off the Grand Banks last Tuesday he was approached by two torpedo boats, that followed him for some distance, and examined his vessel through glasses, finally hurrying away and running at high speed out of sight.

The vessels had no distinguishing marks by which their nationality could be determined, but he surmised that they were Spanish.

Challenges Two Spaniards.

Chicago, Ill., May 26—Captain A. H. Bogardus has issued a challenge in which he invites any two Spanish officers to fight a duel with him. The great marksman, who, with Dr. Carver and Buffalo Bill, has divided honors as a crack shot, names Winchester rifles as the weapons, and challenges the Spaniards to meet him in David and Goliath style.

By Cable THE TELEGRAM.

Boston, May 28—The Herald publishes a special from Jamaica to the effect that a persistent report there says that Schley has forced the channel at Santiago de Cuba, destroyed the Armada which had taken refuge there and bombarded the town. Reports from Cuban official sources confirm the rumor.

DONS TAKE COMFORT.

STEAMSHIP APPEARS.

Kingston, May 28—The marine observer at Port Royal reports a large steamship having three smokestacks to the eastward. She is heading for this place and is apparently American.

THEY DON'T KNOW.

New York, May 28—A Washington special to the New York Journal alleges that President McKinley admits that he has been mislead by the enemy. Secretary Long confesses that he is ignorant of the whereabouts of Admiral Cervera and the Spanish fleet.

A RUPTURE IMMINENT.

Washington, May 28—A diplomatic rupture with Austria is imminent. President McKinley is convinced that Austrian spies have been furnishing information to Spain. Representations will be made to Austria on the subject. Officials refuse to discuss the matter. The refusal of the United States to make reparation for Austrians killed at Hazleton adds to the gravity of the situation.

WHERE, OH, WHERE?

Key West, May 27—Conflicting reports are current as to the location of Cervera's fleet, some say at Cienfuegos and others at Santiago de Cuba, bottled up by Schley. Definite information is soon expected.

CONDITIONS AT 'FRISCO.

San Francisco, May 28—General Otis established his residence at Fort Richmond today. He will enforce strict discipline in the volunteer camp. There are many cases of sickness though none are serious. General Merritt completed the establishment of his headquarters today.

THRALL AND JONES ARRIVE.

Key West, May 28—Haydon Jones and Charles Thrall, the World correspondents exchanged for Spanish prisoners, arrived here this morning on the gunboat Woodbury.

ANOTHER AUXILIARY CRUISER.

New York, May 28—Manager Griscom, of the American Line, says the St. Louis will probably be supplied with coal and provisions here and will be fitted out as an auxiliary cruiser, as was originally intended by the navy department.

NO CONFIRMATION.

Washington, May 28—Up to late this afternoon there is no confirmation of Reuter's report that Sampson has been defeated and killed.

The Impending Revolution.

London, May 27—There are renewed sinister predictions of an impending revolution in Spain, contained in a special despatch from Madrid today. Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria is said to have strongly advised the Queen Regent to prepare to fly, and her mother who is now in Madrid, is reported to have given her the same advice, but, it is added, the Queen Regent is determined to remain.

Continuing, the despatch says:

"The defeat of the Spanish fleet, which the best informed people regard as only a question of a few days, is bound to precipitate an outbreak."

New Trial.

In the suit of Samuel R. Troxler against the Southern Railway for damages caused by the alleged negligence of the defendant by which the plaintiff lost his arm whilst coupling cars, the Supreme court has ordered a new trial refusing the decision of Judge Robinson in the Superior court. The case was argued by Shenck & Shenck and Chas. M. Stedman for plaintiff and F. H. Busbee for defendant.

Wars may come and wars may go but Senator Stewart "goes on" forever.

It would be intresting to hear Sampson and Schley discuss naval strategy boards in strict confidence.

If our artillers run short of ammunition in Cuba they might load with a few unexploded proclamations.

We should not grow impatient over the long hunt for the Spanish fleet. Think of Spain's hunt for a loan.

Neither southerners nor American Catholics have seen fit to fulfill the prophecies made by the Spanish press.

A glance at some of our soldiers in camp does not give a fair idea of the "unlimited resources" of the United States.

The seraphic face of the Honorable Hallelujah Ayer has not yet interposed its shapely lines between the blue and the mouth of the hole in which he was going to put the democratic party.

A careful survey of the countenances of many prominent populists as they hung over the rail of the gallery while the democratic convention was fracturing that proposition somehow, forced the conclusion that they were tolerably tired of their republican allies.

The always esteemed Philadelphia Record announces in letters an inch tall that "an army will aid Schley to destroy Spain's fleet." Reasonable prudential precautions require that the soldiers be equipped with life-preservers during that highly novel and picturesque struggle.

It is greatly to be feared that the victory habit has become chronic with General Valeriano Weyler. He now announces that if he were sent back to Cuba he would invade the United States. By all means withdraw the blockade and let him get back on the island. The 75,000 volunteers could be found tomorrow.

Too much praise can not be given those democrats who favored fusion with the Butler wing of the populist party for the graceful way in which they acquiesced when they found the sentiment of the convention against them. There was an opportunity for much unpleasantness to have crept into the deliberation of the convention but there was no hint of it. Instead of making a fight that would have weakened the party at the polls this fall they made the action of the convention practically unanimous and enabled the party to present a solid front to the enemy. This fact should be kept in mind by the anti-fusionists. There should be no criticism of the men who entertained, honestly, opinions different from those of the majority. They have set for all an example of patriotism and true democracy.

The accident in which private Barbee lost his life has led to some questioning as to why all three sections of the troop train were run over the Southern instead of sending one over the Seaboard and one over the Coast Line. It is hinted that behind the change of routes there was some calling up of past obligations—a settling of old scores so to speak; a matter in which the size of campaign contributions and other sordid "details" (as a populist convention would say) got inextricably mixed up with patriotism and glory. There will be some more of the same sort of stuff before the final shouting begins.

When the Maine was blown up Spain seemed to have exhausted her power to do injury to American warships. Not the least of Spain's troubles is that the Spaniard seems to be a fool and a dullard as well as a braggart. Witness the attempts to palm off dynamite bombs for coal on the Oregon.

Some bright morning the American people will wake up to hear that Old Glory is planted on Cuban soil, ringed about with men who will keep it there until that of Spain is hauled down.

The "bottled up" headlines are really becoming a bit wearisome. Let us hope that the Spaniard, like champagne, gets better the longer he is is corked.

SATURDAY'S LITERARY CHAT.

[All books and magazines mentioned below may be had at Wharton's book store.]

The June Scribner has not a dull contribution in it—something upon which the magazine publisher who has to keep his periodical artistic as well as entertaining may justly felicitate himself. The series of papers on undergraduate life in leading woman's colleges has as an addition one on Vassar. Anne Douglas Sedgwick has a story. C. D. Gibson gives a series of drawing showing morning life in New York. Thomas Nelson Page's fine southern story, Red Rock, increases in interest. The fourth of Wyckoff's papers on the "Workers," and the third of Richard Harding Davis' story, the "Kings Jackal" appears. In the latter the hero, after passionately kissing the heroines riding gloves, (color, size and condition not given) vanishes in a blue haze, slightly iridescent, of sentiment and melodramatic adventure. Richard Henry Stoddard has an exquisite sonnet, "Gulistan." There are other poems.

The June Cosmopolitan is a war number. There are "Stories of War and Love," papers more or less authoritative and scientific. None can find more entertaining company for an afternoon than this number. Some of the titles are "In Havana Just Before the War," "Some Previous Expeditions to Tropical Countries," "Transformation of Citizen Into Soldier," "Lovers Day at State Camp," "Bombardment of Zanzibar," "The Gray Mills of Farley," "The Last Throw," "The Story of His First Battle" and "Guillaumette"—all interesting and timely.

Leslie Stephen's new volume of "Essays" will appear in the autumn.

Lord Charles Beresford's "Nelson and His Times" is announced.

Major Martin Hume is writing the volume on "Modern Spain" for the "Story of the Nations." H. E. Watts' volume only brought the history down to 1492.

Marie Corelli's next romance has already been christened as "The Sins of Christ." This is, indeed, an even more striking title than "The Sorrows of Satan," but it smacks of the blasphemous. It recalls Le Gallienne's recent title, "If I Were God."

A new work on the Crusade is in press, being from the pen of Dr. William B. Stevenson.

Sidney Pickering has completed an historical romance, the scene being laid in Italy during the early years of the present century. The title will probably be "The Key of Paradise."

Shan T. Buller's next Irish story will be entitled "Paying the Piper."

Allen Raine, the author of "A Welsh Singer," has finished a new novel, "By Berwein Banks," which deals not only with the peasantry, but also with the middle classes in Wales.

So Tired! So Tired!

Chronic Dyspepsia!

For ten years I had been a severe sufferer from chronic dyspepsia, which was pronounced incurable. I was completely run down, and in the summer season was not able to do anything and spent a great part of the time lying down. I could not touch meat of any kind, or any solid food whatever, as I could not digest it at all and had to live on crackers and light diet. I was very nervous, would have severe nervous spells, and could not get any oatural sleep, I was so restless. I suffered all the time from chronic dysentery, which kept me weakened down. That was my condition when I determined as a last resort to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I had tried so many treatments and so many patent medicines without benefit that I had no faith in anything and had almost made up my mind not to try another thing, when Mrs. Person came to my house last April and induced me to try her Remedy. I bought ½ dozen bottles. Felt no relief whatever until I was on the fourth bottle, when I knew I was getting better. I became stronger, got so I could sleep well and there was no necessity for me to lie down in the day time. I took twenty-two bottles before I stopped. My digestion is now perfect, and I can eat meat, vegetables, and anything else I want, and as much as I want. When I commenced the Remedy I weighed 98 pounds, now I weigh 115 pounds. Dysentery perfectly cured, and it is all owing to Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. It is everything claimed for it.

General News in a Nutshell.

Captain Don Luis Cadarso, commander of the Spanish warship Reina Christina, who was killed in the battle of the fleets at Manila, was an authority on naval and colonial matters, and as such frequently wrote for Spanish papers and reviews.

Bernardo Augusti, governor-general of the Philippines, gained his experience of war in the late Carlist rebellion in Spain. He held several important commands in that conflict, and at its close had attained the rank of general of division. Three years ago he was appointed commander of the eighth army corps, stationed at Corunna, and later was placed at the head of the sixth army corps, at Burgos. He had held his present office but a few months when the war broke out.

M. Gustave Moreath, the French artist, whose death was recently announced, bequeathed to the state his fine residence in the Rue de la Rochefoucauld, Paris, with all its contents, including a valuable collection of paintings and sketches. If the state should, for any reason, be unable to accept the legacy, it will go to the municipality of Paris.

The landau in which Dr. Thomas W. Evans conveyed the Empress Eugenie from Paris on September 4, 1870, to take ship at Granville for England, was announced for sale at auction the other day. A few hours before the time set for the sale the Evans heirs withdrew the vehicle, and it will probably be put in the Evans museum to be established in this city.

How About It?

Is it the duty of the sanitary officer to look after leaks and breaks in pipes which turn water loose in the streets? If so how is that such things are allowed until stagnant pools covered with a green, sickly looking scum is formed? As we have before remarked, anything which is a menace to health when existing on a small scale is a greater menace on a larger scale. The health of the city demands that the sanitary policeman, who is in reality the health officer, be diligent in the discharge of his duty, particularly at this season of the year.

Unexaggeration

Probably there is no temptation so illusory, so insistent and so perilous that can beset a business house, as the seeming advantage to be derived from exaggeration.

Extravagance of statement seems to be palatable. It is entertaining; it flatters, it captivates, but it is self-deceiving.

The quickest and most certain way in which we can point out its danger is to call your attention to the fact that exaggeration once begun, knows no limit. Where is it going to stop? Today the exaggerator must tell a bigger, stronger story than yesterday; tomorrow, a bigger, stronger one than today, and so it goes on.

Beside being untrue, and invalid, and conveying a wrong impression, it is weak, cowardly and mean to exaggerate; while its being utterly unnecessary and thoroughly disreputable, goes without saying.

Nearly everyday we go to the public with business assertions, grounded upon our character, watched by our reputation. It is absolutely impossible for one of those assertions to contain a particle of exaggeration. They have merchandise quality to vouch for them, and our quality to hold them to their pledges. Hence, if you have any occasion, at any time, to illustrate an argument that the principle and policy of sterling truth make the most successful business, you can point to us and point to our doings and sayings as proof.

We have been rushed the entire week with eager buyers. The same in every department Monday and the Entire Week.
